SHOT PARAMOUR.

Killing Occurred Near Roaring Spring Last Saturday.

Woman Was Killed and her Slayer Escaped Into Tennessee.

see.

News reached the city yesterday of a killing near Roaring Spring. It seems that Queenie Dillard, col., who some time ago left her husband, had been making her home with Tom Blair, col. The woman decided to change her quarters and made preparations to leave Blair's home. When Blair learned of her intention he became enraged and a row resulted. The woman started to leave and Blair drew his pistol and shot her dead. The killing occurred on the farm of Mr. Herman Crenshaw, just over the Trigg county line, where Blair had been at work.

Blair fled as soon as he fired the fatal shot and has not been arrested. It is thought that he went to Tennessee.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE

Ended When Mrs. Sarah Kirkpatrick Passed Away.

Mrs. Sarah Kirkpatrick, widow of Dr. John C. Kirkpatrick, died about 6 o'clock yesterday morning at her home, cor. Liberty and Sixth streets, from the effects of a paralytic stroke with which she was attacked about three weeks ago.

A few hours after she suffered the stroke she regained consciousness again Friday and remained in that condition until death came. Mrs. Kirkpatrick was 77 years old. She was a sister of Mrs. V. M. Metcalfe and the late Mrs. Bobbie Brown.

She was twice married but leaves no family. Her first husband, Dr. Chilton, was buried near Howell and the remains of her second husband, Dr. Kirkpatrick, who died several years ago, were laid to rest in Nashville, Tenn.

Deceased was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and her life was characterized by a rare unselfishness and a tender devotion to her friends.

Funeral services will be held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church by the pastor, Dr. J. L. Wyatt, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Interment in Hopewell cemetery.

FINALLY SETTLED.

Beckham's Eligibility Not Taken Up by the Court.

The Primary Election Case Not Given a Rehearing.

Frankfort, Ky., June 5.—The court of appeals overruled the petitions of rehearing in the cases of Allie W. Young against J. C. W. Beckham, involving the issue of Beckham's eligibility, and of Chas. M. Melcham against Allie W. Young, involving the right of the Democratic state committee to call and hold a state primary election. The court passed on the matter of taking up the motions of its own accord some time ago, and it was predicted that the cases would be reopened and action taken declaring Beckham to be eligible or ineligible, the former decision having been perfectly non-committal, but the action of the court today destroyed all possibility of such action. Judge Barker handed down the decision.

THOMPSON AND BOUGHTER

Pull Off Another Farce in Trigg County Saturday.

Mr. Abe Thompson, the deposed chairman of the Calloway county committee, disregarded the written orders of District Committeeman Whittemore, and attempted to exercise the duties of his former position Saturday, by presiding over an alleged committee meeting at Cadiz. Acting with him were Mark Boughter, deposed chairman of the Boone county committee and Frank Ladd and Rid Reed, the last two named being the regular chairmen from Trigg and Livingston counties, and the only committeemen present in the meeting held.

The meeting was called by Thompson for the purpose of calling a senatorial convention in the district now represented by Senator N. W. Utley, although he is now in no wise connected with the Democratic party organization. He is in the same attitude as the Louisville bolters, who are resisting the authority of the State Central Committee, except that his action comes in direct conflict with the recent decision of Judge A. G. Caruth, who decided that the power to appoint committeemen was lodged altogether in the local district member of the State Central Committee and not in the committee itself or its chairman.

This decision, intended to knock out Chairman Young, sustains Committeeman Whittemore in the appointments made in the First district and if the Court of Appeals sustains Caruth, the last vestige of a claim, the right to appeal from Whittemore to the committee as a whole, will be swept from under Thompson and Boughter and their ridiculous pretensions.

The Thompson caucus at Cadiz went through the forms of calling a convention for some time in August to be held at Cerulean Springs to nominate a State senator.

As only two of the four district committeemen were present and they were present without a meeting having been called by the Chairman, Mr. K. Robertson, of Murray, the alleged call is without any legal status whatever, unless the State Committee should unseat the present chairmen in Calloway and Lyon counties and recognize the gentlemen designated by the Courier-Journal as the "Cook faction." There is no sort of probability that this will be done and if the Caruth decision is sustained it will not even be necessary to have the whole committee pass upon the Whittemore appointments in Lyon and Calloway counties.

United States Senator Daniel, of Virginia, was renominated as his own successor.

Popular Tobaccoist and Pretty Pee Dee Woman to Wed.

News has just reached this city of the death a few days ago, in Baltimore, Maryland, of Mr. John P. Barbee, a former Christian county boy. Mr. Barbee's home was in Roanoke, Va., where he moved to from this county about fifteen years ago. Mr. Barbee had been in failing health for several years and was taken from Roanoke to the hospital in Baltimore for treatment, but gradually grew worse till the end came last Thursday, due to a complication of diseases. The remains were interred in Roanoke Friday.

Mr. Barbee is well remembered in this county, where he had many relatives and friends. He was a son of Mrs. S. E. Barbee, of Oak Grove, this county, and a brother of Mrs. J. N. Pettillo, of Bonnetts-town, and Mr. W. W. Barbee, of Oak Grove. He was about 50 years old.

WILD LIFE IN THE CITY.

Bird Visitors Attracted by Captives in New York Zoological Park. The zoological park not only affords good opportunities for studying the habits of rare and curious foreign birds, but, considering its small area, such a place is almost unequalled for watching our wild native birds at close range.

The sight of so many birds in close proximity to mankind, flying unharmed in the flying cages or walking about their ranges and swimming on the various ponds, is fraught with significance to the quick perceptions of wild birds, large and small. Their keen intuitions, says the New York Tribune, and superior powers of intelligence tell them that such unwonted altruistic conditions cannot fail to offer advantages.

The almost immediate recognition of their security in the park is remarkable, and birds which seldom show themselves within sight of civilization have come again and again, and exhibited a tameness which leads many persons to think them escaped birds.

A visit of Canada geese has occurred only once, but geese are more regular visitors, and at each migration one or more species of these feathered vanishing points are seen swimming on the ponds. You see a small bird with pointed beak, and, on attempting to take a closer look, you suddenly perceive—no bird at all. It has not dived or flown away, but just apparently been absorbed by the water. It is a wonderful trick—so imperceptibly submerging itself that not a ripple marks the place, and far away, perhaps near the shore, where it blends well with the reeds and rushes, the little bird emerges as quietly as it disappeared.

A storm once dashed a queer little sea bird against the boundary fence of the park and stunned it for a while, but it soon recovered and lived and dived happily in the pool of the birdhouse. This little stranger was a Brunnish murre, one of those birds which live such strange lives, spending the winter, as nearly as we know, on the high seas, and in summer going far north to lay their one egg on the bare rock of some solitary cliff.

Wild seagulls will often drop from their loose flocks passing overhead and consort with their wing-clipped kindred. When they go way the young gulls which have been hatched in the park usually accompany them, but return in a few hours to their home and flock.

At least four species of wild ducks frequent the ponds in the park at present, probably by those of their kind in the collections—wingedons, mallards, redheads and wood ducks. Three redhead ducks made the ponds their home one entire fall, and as many as 16 wild wood ducks have been seen at once associating with those which breed in the park each year. A number of these wild wood ducks are trapped every fall, so the flocks of this species in the collection are of the finest.

EGG OF AN EXTINGUISHED BIRD.

In Fifty Times the Size of an Ordinary Hen's Egg.

A rare and remarkable curiosity in the shape of the largest egg in the world is now on exhibition in bird hall of the American Museum of Natural History, says the New York Commercial Advertiser. The egg belonged to a gigantic extinct bird called the aepyornis, formerly inhabiting the wilds of the island of Madagascar. This huge member of the bird kingdom, for some unknown reason, was exterminated in comparatively recent times, and nothing but its fossil eggs and fragmentary remains of the skeleton can be found. From the length and size of the limbs and feet the birds are said by scientists to have been probably two or three times the height of an ostrich of which they are supposed to be a distinct group. They were powerful and even dangerous creatures to human life. It is related that they carried off cattle and sheep, and the white inhabitants had to walk about with tame tigers to guard and protect themselves from their attack. The extraordinary size of the egg, which is nearly a foot long by ten inches in diameter, is vividly shown by comparison with a hen's egg, which seems nothing but a mere speck in comparison. Nearly half a hundred hen eggs could be packed inside. They command a high price, owing to their scarcity, averaging from $100 to $500 apiece.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE,
CHARLES H. BUSH, OF CHRISTIAN.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
DENNY P. SMITH,
OF TRIGG.

It has not rained for 50 days in Boston and forest fires are raging in many parts of New England, the worst being in Maine. The damage so far amounts to $1,000,000.

The Ohio Republicans nominated Myron T. Herrick for Governor, W. G. Harding for Lieutenant Governor and endorsed M. A. Hanna for re-election to the Senate and Roosevelt was endorsed for re-nomination for President.

Of course the "commitment" had to meet in Cadiz, and of course the "convention" will have to be held in Trigg county. Now let the convention assemble at 4:30 p. m. and "nominate" a Trigg county man and all will be serene.

Hereafter the "Gaul" of Louisville Democrats will be divided into "three parts"—those who bolted in 1896, those who bolted in 1899, and those who, like the ship-wrecked Irishman, were "agin the government" in 1903.

Judge Caruth, who granted the injunction against Chairman Allie Young in the Louisville muddle, tried the case last Friday and sustained his former action. The case now goes to the Court of Appeals, where Chairman Young expects to fare better.

A voting machine was given a highly satisfactory trial at Rochester, N. Y., last week. If these machines can be set to close automatically at 4 o'clock, and have a trap gun set to watch the ballots, by all means let's try to get them introduced into the next primary in Cadiz.

A negro school teacher was lynched at Belleville, Ill., Saturday for shooting the county superintendent for refusing him a certificate to teach pending charges of immorality. He was hung to a telegraph pole and his body set on fire. No serious effort was made to prevent the lynching. The wounded man will recover.

Banker J. M. McKnight, who will have to go to a federal prison for six years after a long fight, will have the sympathies of many people. As a bank wrecker he may have merited punishment, but he was not alone in his sinning, though he alone will have to answer for it. Many defaulters less guilty than this old man are outside the penitentiary walls.

Teddy has returned to Washington to find that all opposition has disappeared and that his re-nomination is assured a year in advance. The people are rather pleased with a President who will give them a rest from statesmanship for two months at a time. And the gratifying part of it is that the shebang at Washington ran along just the same without a President to pose as it.

At the risk of being accused of "hobnobbing with the administration," we want to compliment Jim Richardson as the horse sense contained in his editorial in last Friday's Glasgow Times on the political situation. No doubt Bro. Richardson is a Sunday school scholar, and in the language of the Apostle Paul in last Sunday's lesson, to the sailors who refused to heed his warning of impending storms, he will permit us from our position in the storm cellar to which he chased us last winter to say, "I told you so." The sailors insisted upon crossing the Mediterranean in the typhoon season and when the storm came they had to swim for their lives. We are to navigate a stormy sea this summer, without so much as a plank for a platform, the machine ship going to pieces before the first wind, the crew in mutiny and the officers about to be pitched overboard by pirates. In the carnage of the battle, follow the general; in times of storm, obey the captain; in party peril, stand by the organization. If the Courier-Journal is permitted to disrupt the party organization on the eve of battle, it will do the Republican party a more signal service than it did by an open bolt seven years ago. Whatever else may be said about Chairman Young, he is at heart a Democrat. This cannot be said of some of those hounding him, judging by records. A party without an organization is wrecked in advance, and unless the party organization is to be recognized by Democrats, and all mutineers swung up to the yardarms, there is more truth than poetry in Bro. Richardson's declaration: "As the case now stands, the Democrats have not an even show of carrying this state in the coming November election."

Editor Chas. M. Meacham, the committeeman from the Second district, is a very funny man. He is about as changeable of late as the astute editor of the Post. He is one day fighting Allie Young and the State Committee both in his paper and in the courts and the next day he is hobnobbing with them, the very men he had been kicking against. He is one day kissing Allie Young and the administration, and the next he is seen with both arms about them swearing they are the best men in the wide world. Yes, he is a funny man.—Mayfield Messenger.

We fail to see the humor or the truth in this series of statements. Mr. Meacham fought the issue raised in the courts to a finish, only declining to ask for another rehearing after the purposes of the suit had ended in failure. When the Democratic organization of the State, with which Mr. Meacham has been connected in one position or another without interruption for 21 years, was assailed by a machine, Mr. Meacham, as a loyal Democrat, stood by the State organization, with which he has been identified for eight years. He has at no time engaged in any "coussing," though he may have done some vigorous kicking. He has so far done no "wearing," though he may be forced to cultivate an appetite for crow.

J. Willard Mitchell, of Jessamine county, who was an unsuccessful candidate for Attorney General, is one of the ablest, most loyal and most deserving young Democrats in the state. He was bitterly disappointed at his defeat, but accepted the verdict gracefully, and was at Frankfort to assure the committee of his desire to take the stump for his successful competitor. The Democratic party may yet have need for the services of this gallant and brainy young Democrat.

The State Bar Association will meet in Owensboro July 2. A banquet at the Rudd House will be a feature.

Twenty-nine new banks were organized in Kentucky during the month of May.

HARRY COWAN

Figures in a Sensation at Joliet, Illinois.

Modern invention made an eloquent case for Mary Schultz, nineteen years old, but trouble came thereafter. Miss Schultz is a Joliet girl, and when her father, John Schultz, stepped into a telephone booth saw her chance and seized it. Slamming the door of the booth, she turned the key and then, with her father locked in, she went to another telephone and called him up. "Papa," she said, "you're whipped. I am going to run away with Harry Cowan, and I'm going to do it right away."

Run she did, but Schultz broke out of the telephone booth and followed them to Chicago by next train. To-day he caused Cowan to be arrested on a charge of abduction.—New York Times.

SAVED BY HIS DOG.

Snake Story Vouched For by Editor Tullion.

New Castle, Ky., June 5.—Charles Clifford is a twelve-year-old orphan boy who is being reared by Mrs. Susan Young in the country, near this place. He was gathering wild strawberries near the home, his shepherd dog, Ben Hur, being with him, when he saw a large snake standing upright against a tree in the attitude of springing or striking. The boy ran away, and, getting a stick, returned to dispatch his snake. Just as he was about to strike the snake sprang up on him, lighting upon his shoulders, and began to coil himself about the lad's neck. The death of the youth would certainly have been the result had not the dog come to his rescue. Before this time the canine had refused to attack the snake, but, seeing the perilous situation of his master, he seized the snake viciously and fought it with might and main, finally destroying it, but not without much difficulty.

The screams of young Clifford while in the coils of the snake were distressing and piercing, and were heard by various neighbors more than half a mile distant. However, he was not injured beyond the effect of the fright. The reptile was measured after its death by gentlemen in the community, and found to be seven feet and four inches long. It was the racer variety.

HENDRICK TO ACT.

He Will Prosecute Caleb Powers For Gov. Goebel's Murder.

Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, has again been retained by the Goebel heirs to assist in the prosecution of the third trial of Caleb Powers for the murder of Governor Goebel, at Georgetown.

The trial, which will be conducted by Judge Joe Robbins, of Mayfield, is probably to be held at a special session of the Scott county circuit court in July. It is expected that this trial will not be as long as the other two.

Col. Hendrick figured in both of the other trials as an attorney on the side of the commonwealth and his conduct of the case attracted comment and admiration throughout the State. His speech in the first hearing of the case, two years ago, was regarded as one of the best ever delivered in a criminal trial in Kentucky.

Col. Hendrick was recently requested to take part in the third trial and he has accepted a retainer.—Paducah News-Democrat.

MARRIED FOR TWO YEARS

And the Secret Has Just Come to Light.

Miss Annie Waldon, of this city, and C. C. Johnson, formerly of Evansville, but now of Cincinnati, were married at Henderson two years ago and have kept the matter secret all this while, not even one of the family of either ever suspecting the marriage, says the Evansville Journal News.

The couple went to Henderson to spend the day with friends and while there concluded to get married. So Mr. Johnson repaired to the county clerk's office and procured a license. Then the preacher was found. Rev. T. W. Buckner, who soon tied the knot, and the young couple have been successful in keeping their marriage quiet for two years.

Last week Mr. Johnson came home and the marriage was made known.

BOOTH'S BODY.

Remains of Assassin Were Not Buried in Baltimore.

Basil Moxley, veteran doorkeeper at Ford's Opera House, in Washington, D. C., after a silence of years informs the world that the body buried in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore, was not that of the assassin, but that of another man forwarded to Baltimore by the government at the solicitation of the Booth family and their friends. Mr. Moxley is the sole survivor of the man who acted as pallbearers at what he now terms a mock funeral, and he has deemed the time ripe to tell the facts in this strange disclosure.

"I knew Booth well," said Mr. Moxley, "and conversed with him only a short time before the affair in Washington. I am the only one of the pallbearers left. The man who was brought to Baltimore did not resemble Booth. He had brown hair, while Booth's was jet black. There was also a difference in their general appearance."

DOLLAR WHEAT.

Minimum Price Should be $1.00 Per Bushel at Chicago.

(Bulletin National Grain American Society of Equity.)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 25, 1903.—The consumption of wheat has increased enormously, and it is tremendously on the increase, as we will attempt to show.

The country is enjoying unequal prosperity. The demand for all commodities is unprecedented. Prices are maintained in every line, with frequent advances. Labor is receiving more now than ever before, with the tendency still upward. The march is upward and onward. The people who do things will have it this way, and will not have it any other way. There is only one exception to this rule, and it is a very important exception. So long as this important exception exists the greatest and best classes of our people will suffer and our national prosperity will be jeopardized. The exception covers all of our agricultural products.

While every other important industry is protected for prices and margins, the price of farm products is at the mercy of speculators, trusts and gamblers, who manipulate them in the most outrageous ways to the enormous loss and disadvantage of the two great classes of our country, the producers and consumers.

As agriculture is the foundation of our nation's business, everything that operates to secure permanent prosperity for our nation must operate to secure permanent national prosperity, and for every legitimate industry. On the other hand, anything that tends to make agriculture unsatisfactory or unprofitable will just as surely be reflected in every other enterprise.

The lowering of prices of all farm products that is going on at present is a most alarming condition. Unless it could be stopped or controlled at a safe and equitable point it is surely the beginning of the end of the era of prosperity that our country has enjoyed.

Let everybody consider this prediction and take warning. Let those who have large interests and investments stand appalled at the spectacle of large crops being produced which may not return to producers a fair and profitable reward.

For proof that wheat should be worth $1.00 per bushel at Chicago, study these figures:

The total wheat crops for eight years were: 1895, 467,000,000 bushels; 1896, 428,000,000 bushels; 1897, 530,000,000 bushels; 1898, 675,000,000 bushels; 1899, 247,000,000 bushels; 1900, 522,000,000 bushels; 1901, 748,000,000 bushels; 1902, 670,000,000 bushels.

The visible supply on May 1 for the past ten years was as follows: 1893, 73,000,000 bushels; 1894, 65,000,000 bushels; 1895, 62,000,000 bushels; 1896, 55,000,000 bushels; 1897, 35,000,000 bushels; 1898, 24,000,000 bushels; 1899, 28,000,000 bushels; 1900, 50,000,000 bushels; 1901, 47,000,000 bushels; 1902, 40,000,000 bushels; 1903, 35,000,000 bushels.

You will note that the visible supply May 1 of this year is the lowest, with but two exceptions for ten years, and this notwithstanding the fact that the two years preceding were years of largest production in the history of the country. The crop last year was over 200,000,000 bushels more than was produced either in 1895 or 1896, and the year before (1901) the crop was almost equal to what was produced in both of these years. You can see in these and other comparisons that could be made, proof of enormous increase in consumption and disappearance of the wheat crop.

Also it is believed the visible supply is greatly overestimated, yet it is 40 per cent less May 1 than the average visible for ten years. Late reports from foreign countries indicate serious damage. The French crop is reported to be in worse condition than ever before since records were kept. Germany is nearly as badly off. Russia has had a bad spring in many important sections, while in our own country the fine prospects have not been fully maintained. The unreasonable weather in many places appears to have debilitated the plant, which favorable weather in the future may not overcome.

The average price of Chicago wheat has been 88 cents for twenty years. This covers a period when this country experienced terrible business depressions, and wheat went below 50 cents per bushel. It also covers two periods when wheat averaged over $1.00 per bushel at Chicago. The first period was two years, 1876, average $1.03, and 1877, average $1.27. The second period covered four years, as follows: 1880, $1.05, 1881, $1.15, 1882, $1.18, 1883, $1.02. It is evident that the American farmer can not produce over about 12 bushels per acre on an average, which at 88 cents per bushel, represents $10.56 per acre to cover all the work, seed, twine, threshing, marketing, etc., an amount that scarcely equals the simplest machine that the farmer buys, yet which only represents a small fraction of the factory investment, capital and labor employed. The farmer is limited to a few acres for producing wheat each year, while the manufacturer's capacity to produce plows, etc., is usually limited only by the demand. Give the farmer $1.00 per bushel for his wheat, and he receives only $12.00 return for the use of his acre one year, with seed, labor, twine and other expenses.

Who dare say, in the face of these evidences, and considering the present higher range of values for nearly every other commodity produced in the country, that wheat at this time and for the next crop, is not equitably worth $1.00 per bushel on the basis of the Chicago market, and that other farm crops should be on a corresponding basis?

Farmers, keep this matter in mind, keep $1.00 wheat ($1.00 at Chicago) before you, and you will get it as sure as the sun rises in the east and sets in the west. Above all, however, we implore you, don't be fools. When you get the equitable price let go. Sell on the basis of $1.00 and no less, but don't hold for more or you may run up an unwieldy surplus, which must eventually compel lower prices, feed the world at equitable prices, and it will consume every bushel that it will at an unfairly low price.

Every acre of our fair domain which has fed and clothed us, for these many years, and now feels the strain of impoverishment, calls for equity. Every farmer who has labored hard, honestly and hopefully, with a comparative pittance to show for it, cries for equity. Every farm hand who labors from sun to sun for scarcely more than board and decent clothing, cries for equity and an income to allow him to live like an American citizen should live. Every faithful wife, every boy and every girl on the farm, who has patiently done his or her share under the worst conditions ever imposed on any free people, cry for less drudgery, more pleasure and an equitable distribution of rewards. They should have it and they can.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

It is evident that the American farmer can not produce over about 12 bushels per acre on an average, which at 88 cents per bushel, represents $10.56 per acre to cover all the work, seed, twine, threshing, marketing, etc., an amount that scarcely equals the simplest machine that the farmer buys, yet which only represents a small fraction of the factory investment, capital and labor employed. BAD DIGESTION

Imperfect digestion is more serious and far-reaching in its effect than is generally understood. This state of health is like an open gate to disease because germs that may be in the air we breathe at once seize such an opportunity to attack the vital organs. They slowly undermine the strength and energy—the life force—usually at a time when a strong healthy body is most needed.

Brilliant Record of a Newspaper Man.

The success which has attended William E. Curtis, the famous correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald, is rarely attained by newspaper writers. Beginning his career in Chicago in 1872, as reporter, he rapidly rose to the position of managing editor. He resigned that position on receiving a government appointment as secretary of the South American commission. Mr. Curtis traveled extensively in Central and South America while in this position, producing several popular volumes as the result of his literary labors. After co-operating with Secretary of State James G. Blaine, Mr. Curtis organized the work of the bureau of the American republics, with the result that he was placed in charge of that organization, and at the World's Columbian Exposition he distinguished himself by his labors as the executive head of the Latin-American department. As correspondent of The Chicago Record-Herald Mr. Curtis' travels have carried him into every section of the United States as well as into all quarters of the globe. His China and Japan letters were published in book form; likewise his letters from England, Germany and France, as well as those written during his travels in Mexico and South America.

No newspaper correspondent possesses the facility shown by Mr. Curtis in writing on any of the diversified subjects embraced in his correspondence and making it luminous. Nor is any correspondent followed so closely year after year by the thousands of readers of The Chicago Record-Herald. On his recent trip to the Holy Land, Mr. Curtis' letters have been read more closely than ever, and his descriptions of that interesting section of the globe as it appears today have been quoted everywhere. A daily letter from Mr. Curtis appears in The Chicago Record-Herald.

The Hygiene of Old Age.

We look upon the aged with good reason as having a slender hold upon life. One that may be loosened by a slight shock of injury or disease which, in the young or middle-aged, would serve only as a stimulus to the reparative vital powers. This is a conservative belief, but it warns us to shield our loved ones who have fought the fight, from all influences which might shorten their stay with us. But we must not go too far in our solicitude, for injury may be inflicted and life shortened by coddling the old, almost as surely as by coddling the young. The vital processes in the aged are slow, but they are still existent, and they may be kept active by gentle opposition and stimulation, just as they may be increased in childhood and youth by rough methods. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound is a boon to the aged and infirm and probably no medicine has accomplished so much, or received as high or as many endorsements from men and women whose extreme age gives them a seemingly slender hold upon life. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin makes perfect digestion and acts gently upon the bowels in an easy and pleasant manner. Tones up the entire system and prolongs life. 50c and $1 bottles at all druggists.

BACK PAINS.

City Constable West Tells Hopkingsville People How to be Rid of Them.

Back pains are the protests of bad kidneys. They point to inflamed and diseased conditions in those organs. Dangerous to neglect it. Easy to ward off diabetes, Bright's disease and dropsy. A Hopkingsville official who has found the means tells about it.

W. H. West, stock raiser, City Constable and Collector, living at 849 W. 7th St., says: "I suffered for years with kidney and bladder troubles, and in consequence was subjected to a great deal of pain. There was a heavy, dull aching in the small of my back over my right hip and shoulder when I would stir around or remain long on my feet. The difficulty with the kidney secretions annoyed me at all times."

They were scanty, irregular, and the passages were accompanied with a burning sensation. I heard so much said about Doan's Kidney Pills that I got a box at Thomas & Trahern's drug store and gave them a trial. I found that they benefited me in every way, so much so that I have taken the opportunity on several occasions to recommend them to my friends, and will continue to do so. You may refer to me as having used the pills with good results, and I hope that it will be the means of relieving others who may be suffering from that common complaint, kidney trouble."

Men Charged With "Gold Brick"
Swindle Were Released on Bond.

Chas. T. Jerome, Philadelphia "assayer," and Charles Roberts, Los Angeles "miner," said by the police to be two of the most notorious gold brick swindlers in the United States, gave bail and were released. They at once left the city. The men were arrested a month ago and their outfits captured while attempting, it is said, to "gold brick" William H. Breckert, of Vincennes, the heaviest land owner in Knox County. Bond of each had been fixed at $5,000.

The authorities had filed the charges of conspiracy to defraud in seven counts. The judge quashed five of the counts and held good the counts of conspiracy to commit bank steering and grand larceny. At an extra session he granted a decrease of the bond to $2,500 each on the criminal charge and $1,000 each on the Kentucky requisition. The latter required freehold security which was given by John F. Miller, a wagon manufacturer of Vincennes, and Marx Gumbert, of Evansville. The prisoners gave cash bond on the criminal charge through Gumbert. The prisoners had been identified in jail at Vincennes by "Uncle" Ben Johnson, of Elkhart, Ky., as men who gold-bricked him out of $5,000 in April. Asked for a statement by the Court the Kentucky attorneys said they would not press the case, as arrangements to repay Johnson had been perfected. The trial of the defendants is set for June 10.
